2. Available positions are divided into two areas:
   a) Humanities - Social studies Area (Departments of Economics and Management - Humanities - Psychology and Cognitive Science – Faculty of Law)
   b) Scientific Area (Departments of Cellular, Computational and Integrative Biology CIBIO - Physics - Mathematics - Civil, Environmental and Mechanical Engineering – Information Engineering and Computer Science – Industrial Engineering – Psychology and Cognitive Science – C3A Centre of Agriculture Food Environment).

3. The positions are offered as following:
   - n. 10 (ten) positions to applicants of the Cognitive, Social Sciences and Humanities area;
   - n. 5 (five) positions to applicants of the Scientific area.

According to the number of eligible candidates for each area, the Evaluation Commission might decide a different division of the positions between the two areas.

Should the position (1) of the Call for Admission for Bachelor Degrees and for “Five-Year Programme” Degrees for non-EU citizens not living in Italy not be assigned, the position could be added to the ones available for this Call.

Art. 2 – Benefits

1. Admitted students will get free accommodation in the Collegio Bernardo Clesio (mini units including kitchen, bathroom and a double room suitable for two students). A list of the benefits is available at the following link: https://www.unitn.it/collegiobernardoclesio/en

2. According to the personal economic condition, the students can apply for a scholarship covering the university fees; instructions are available at the following link: http://www.operauni.tn.it/

Art. 3 – Requirements

1. To apply for the present call, candidates must hold an Italian High School Diploma or other foreign qualification recognized as equivalent (A-levels, Abitur, Maturità, etc) stating that the final exam will take place during the school year 2018/2019. In case of Italian title the final exam score must be equal or superior to 80/100. In case of non-Italian title, the final exam score must be equal or superior than the 80% of the maximum achievable evaluation for the degree in the specific Country. The Evaluation Committee can accept applications from candidates who took the final exam in the academic year 2017/18 if justified by certified qualifying formative experiences (see article 4, paragraph 2) and only from candidates enrolling for the first time at the first year at an Italian or foreign University.

2. The candidates, after obtaining the High School Diploma, must send, within July 16 2019, to the mail address collegioclesio@unitn.it: a certification of the diploma, featuring the final exam mark and the maximum achievable mark for the specific Country, and a copy of the personal document used for the online application.

3. In case that on July 16 2019 the final exam mark is not still available, the certification must be submitted before the written exam of July 18 2019 (see art. 5).
