| Welcome Center | https://www.ujaen.es/internacional/en/welcome-center Are you a student, staff or visiting researcher coming to the University of Jaén for the first time? The Welcome Centre is the point of reference in our university for international students (both regular and exchange mobilities), visiting faculty and staff who need help before and during the first days of their stay on our campuses. We will guide you and provide you with information on all the important issues for your stay. The Office is located in the multi-purpose building, C4, at the Las Lagunillas Campus (Jaén). The public service hours are: from 10:00 to 13:00, Monday to Friday. |
| Is there any assistance in finding off-campus campus housing? Buddy Program | The so-called UJA Buddy Program connects international students with Spanish students to receive support, orientation and help during their first days at UJA Buddy Program |
| What is Bein@UJA ? | https://www.ujaen.es/internacional/en/beinuja-what The University of Jaén (UJA) is an institution open to the world and strongly committed to internationalization and the |

| OTHER PRACTICAL INFORMATION | |
| Housing information (if any) | Unlike other Spanish cities in Spain, the cost of living in Jaén is very affordable and accommodation is relatively cheap. Jaén is also one of the safest cities in Spain. The University of Jaén offers on-campus accommodation through the Colegio Mayor Domingo el Savio and University Apartments. There are rooms and apartments which are exclusively reserved for international students, although the number of places is limited. Check the information here: https://www.ujaen.es/internacional/en/prepare-your-stay-uja Alternatively, the Welcome Center also provides information on the accommodation and helps you find alternative options off-campus. See also site: https://www.ujaen.es/internacional/en/international-students/exchange-students |
| Insurance for incoming students | https://www.ujaen.es/internacional/en/international-students/exchange-students/mobility-insurance-incoming-students https://www.ujaen.es/internacional/en/uja-students/healthcare-and-insurance-during-international-mobility-stay UJA does not provide insurance for incoming exchange students, who should ensure they have comprehensive cover for the duration of their program. The exchange student must be covered by an illness or accidents travel assistance insurance covering repatriation expenses due to illness or accident, healthcare derived from professional activities. |

| Discover Jaén | https://www.ujaen.es/internacional/en/discover-jaen The University of Jaén is located in the province of Jaén, in the northeast of the autonomous community of Andalusia. Known as the inland paradise, the province of Jaén is a jewel that treasures a great historical-artistic, gastronomic and natural heritage; and a real haven of authenticity of Andalusian and Spanish tradition and know-how in an increasingly saturated and homogeneous world. People in Jaén have a welcoming spirit and are always willing to help international students. Here you have several reasons to discover this unique jewel and live intensely a unique experience in the heart of Andalusia: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jaén is the world capital of olive oil. Jaén produces 20% of the world's total olive oil production, thanks to having the largest humanised forest in the world (more than 65 million olive trees). • Olive oil makes our gastronomy unique. The province is experiencing a culinary revolution, which has made Jaén the Spanish city with the highest number of Michelin stars per square metre in Spain. • The culture of the tapa is deeply rooted in Jaén and throughout the eastern part of Andalusia, and is an indispensable part of our way of life. Going out with friends and acquaintances to have this aperitif, which is served free with the drink, is a ritual for the people of Jaén and allows you to enjoy the best of Spanish cuisine in an economical way while socialising. • Jaén is the province with the largest number of fortresses and castles in Europe. The province of Jaén was for two |
