Candidates who are still enrolled or have recently graduated from the University of Trento are advised to check that their email address is valid at this link: Profile data. Any changes to personal contact details after the application is closed should be communicated to the PhD Office - Humanities and Cognitive Science Area (phd.office-cssh@unitn.it).

Art. 2 – ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

1. Applications for admission to the selection process are accepted from candidates regardless of nationality, who hold:
 - a) an Italian “Laurea Specialistica” or “Laurea Magistrale” (Master’s Degree) or degree issued in accordance with the regulations in force prior to Ministerial Decree no. 509 of 3 November 1999, amended by Ministerial Decree no. 270 of 22 October 2004;
 - b) or a second-level university degree issued by an Italian “AFAM” Institute (Alta Formazione Artistica e Musicale/Artistic and Musical Higher Education);
 - c) or an equivalent degree qualification (Master’s degree) obtained abroad at an officially recognised academic institution which gives access to an academic course equivalent to the PhD in the country/higher education system where the degree was issued (unless there are substantial differences). Foreign qualifications must be equivalent to the Italian Laurea

Magistrale (Master's degree) in duration, level¹ and subject area². They must be evaluated as suitable³ by the Admissions Committee for the sole purpose of participating in this admissions process.

- Applications are also accepted from candidates who have not yet obtained the required academic qualification but will do so by 27 May 2026. In this case admission is "conditional" and applicants must submit the degree certificate to the PhD Office - Humanities and Cognitive Science Area (email: phd.office-cssh@unitn.it) no later than 3 June 2026. Failure to provide the certificate will lead to exclusion.
- It's in the applicant's best interest to provide all elements necessary for evaluation, especially if the higher education system of the country where the title was obtained is not comparable with the Italian one. The Evaluation Committee reserves the right to ask applicants to provide additional documentation, if deemed necessary to be considered for the selection.
- Applicants who have already obtained a doctoral degree can be admitted to the Doctoral Programme upon successful participation to the selection process and only if both subjects and the research area of the Doctoral Programme are different from the previous PhD Programme. If a PhD student has already been awarded a PhD scholarship in the past (even for one month only) for a Doctoral programme in Italy, he/she cannot receive a Doctoral scholarship again⁴.

Art. 3 – THE DOCTORAL PROGRAMME

- The research topics of the Doctoral Course cover the fields of philosophy, history and cultural heritage under a European perspective which refers to Europe as a macro-regional context and a historic-cultural horizon. Teaching and research activities of the Course are focused on developing wide methodological and interdisciplinary skills. PhD students are expected to reach full reliability and autonomy in their research work, to acquire specialized skills and to add new inputs to the Department's lines of research.

2. Specialized curricula

The variety of methodological approaches of the Course are represented by three specialized curricula, that will enable the PhD students to go deeper into specific research fields, in the frame of a single scientific community.

- Philosophy. The object of analysis of this specialized curriculum concerns the origins – ancient, medieval and modern – of European philosophical thought, considered along a number of axes: logical-linguistic, ethical-practical-educational, epistemologic and aesthetic. Focus will also be placed on the diverse religions of Europe as constitutive elements of the heritage common to the diverse range of European identities.
- History. Central to the course will be the formation and development of European identities within a comparative perspective, from Greek and Roman civilization up to the present day. Particular attention will be devoted to the historical and historiographical relationship with the German-speaking world, to the building of traditions and of historical memory, and to the evolution of administrative, economic, military and governmental structures of European regions.
- Cultural Heritage. The fields of research encompass the multi-faceted cultural heritage within European geographical and environmental space through the study of archaeological evidence, products of art and music, theatre history, documents and archives.

7. The interview, designed to assess the candidate's level of knowledge in the scientific discipline (SSD) relevant to the research project submitted, will be conducted in Italian. In any case, candidates are required to demonstrate language skills in two languages among French, English, Spanish or German as indicated below:
- for applicants who uploaded to the application a certificate stating a minimum level of CEFR B2 in a second language among French, English, Spanish, or German, during the interview will be assessed the passive knowledge of another language among French, English, Spanish, or German, chosen by the candidate in the application;

The PhD programme is mainly taught in Italian. The candidates who have a different mother tongue than Italian must have a good knowledge of Italian language. This knowledge will be verified during the interview.

8. The oral exam is successfully passed with a minimum score of 30 points.
9. The results of the assessment of qualifications and oral exam will be available at the selection's webpage¹³.
10. The interview may take place in one of two modalities (at the candidate's choice):

The starting time of the interviews will be scheduled by the Commission. Candidates must provide the same identification document attached to the application form. 2. Scholarships are assigned to candidates on the basis of:
 - a) their position in the final ranking;
 - b) for the topic-specific scholarships according to ranking order and until their maximum number is filled. The Admissions Committee's evaluation of a candidate's suitability based on their educational profile is a decisive factor in the allocation of the topic-specific scholarships.
3. The candidate who has been awarded a topic-specific scholarship is required to accept it, since the request for the award of a topic-specific scholarship implies the candidate's preference for the award of that specific scholarship over the others. Renouncing the topic-specific scholarship results in the forfeiture of the candidate's right to enrolment in the PhD Programme.
4. Non-allocation of the topic-specific scholarship will result in the reduction of the number of places available.
5. The ranked list (using candidates' application IDs) will be published on the selection's website. By publishing the ranking, notification concerning the selection results is considered fulfilled. Admitted candidates will not receive any personal messages.

¹³ The chosen candidates will be listed using their application ID.
